

How Easy Is It to Access Government Financial Benefits?

Market: India | Target Sample: 1,200 respondents | Target Age: 18+

1. Categories & Schemes Covered

Category	Details / Schemes
Business & Entrepreneurship	Stand-Up India; Startup India; PM Mudra Yojana; PM SVANidhi
Agriculture	PM-KISAN; Kisan Credit Card
Insurance & Pension	PMJJBY; PMSBY; Atal Pension Yojana

2. Survey Structure & Questions with Skip Logics

- Q1. Age — Single select: 18–24, 25–34, 35–44, 45–54, 55–64, 65+.

Logic: Under 18 → TERMINATE.
- Q2. City — Dropdown: Hyderabad, Bengaluru, Mumbai, Delhi, Chennai, Pune, Vijayawada, Visakhapatnam, Lucknow, Ahmedabad.

Logic: Target city quotas enforced. Other → classify as out-of-target.
- Q3. Occupation — Salaried, self-employed, business owner, entrepreneur/startup founder, farmer, street vendor, student, retired.

Logic: Capture audience quota.
- Q4. Government financial benefit experience — currently receiving, received previously, applied but did not receive, never applied.

Logic: Route respondent to relevant section.
- Q5. Which schemes have you heard of? — Multiple select across all covered schemes.

Logic: None → skip detailed scheme questions.
- Q6. Have you ever applied for a government financial scheme? — Yes/No.

Logic: Yes → Q7; No → skip application questions Q7-Q10.
- Q7. How easy was the application process? — 1 (Very difficult) to 5 (Very easy).

Logic: Rating scale 1 to 5.
- Q8. Main reason for delay — documentation, verification, bank processing, government processing, eligibility.

3. Master Redirection & Termination Rules

- Screening Termination: Under 18 → terminate immediately.
- Quota Handling: Target city & audience quotas strictly enforced.
- Skip Routing: Non-applicable sections dynamically skipped based on prior choices.